

Intent to Home School

Parents of home school students or students who attend a non-accredited private school must complete a Declaration of Intent for Home-based Instruction each year. Forms are available at the Methow Valley School District superintendent's office (996-9205). Students in the District-sponsored Alternative Learning Experience program are not included in this requirement.