

Faviana Medina has been involved in music ever since she can remember. She began to sing in a choir at the age of eight, and has been singing in choirs ever since.

She is currently working towards her AA degree, as well as her prerequisites for the nursing program.

When not at school, Faviana is found hanging out with friends and family.

Sarah Murray is in her second year at Wenatchee Valley College, and her second quarter singing in the WVC Chamber Choir. She has been singing in choir since sixth grade, and plays many instruments including; cello, piano, bass, and ukulele.

She plans to work towards her AA degree and then transfer to a four-year college. She plans to major in Computer Science and minor in Music.

She has spent a lot of time traveling the U.S. and has been to Japan through the Sister City Organization.

Katriel has always enjoyed music, and has come to appreciate it even more after joining the Wenatchee Valley College Chamber Choir.

She plans to earn her bachelor's degree, majoring in Math, and minoring in Music.

Katriel enjoys binge-watching Doctor Who, and listening to Twenty-One Pilots.

Frank Geiger currently performs with the Leavenworth Musikapella Band, the Wenatchee Big Band, and the Wenatchee Valley College Chamber Singers.

Frank was born and raised in Southern California. At an early age he started to learn to play the guitar and baritone horn, and then settled on the trumpet for the past 43 years. He's also taught himself to play the piano and has been involved with, and directed, several ensembles over the years.

At one point in his life, he rode his bicycle across the United States, from California to Washington D.C.

Rachel has always loved music ever since she was young. Through choir and theater productions, she has enjoyed many opportunities to be involved in music. She has been in the WVC choir for two years, and is always eager to learn and perform.

Rachel plans to continue her education through Wenatchee Valley College, and receive her Associate of Arts and Sciences degree.

Her hobbies include watching movies, hiking, exploring new places, and archery.

Lance has lived in Wenatchee all of his life. He found a love for singing while performing in musicals throughout all four years of High School. The first class that he took at WVC was Chamber Choir, and he's been a part of it, on and off, for the past 6 years.

Currently, he is working towards a degree in Computer Technology.

Some of his hobbies include; watching movies, working-out and going on hikes.

Yessie has been in choir for the past 5 years and she loves it!

She plans to major in Business Administration and minor in accounting.

An interesting fact about Yessie, she received a call-back in 2014 for the TV series, The Voice. And she had a one-year contract with Seattle's Talent.

This is Warren Mangabat's first year in a choir. After the few weeks he's learned to really enjoy being a part of this family of musicians. He got into choir because his father was the choir director at Pacific Lutheran University.

He recently moved to Wenatchee, and enjoys the city very much.

A fun fact about Warren, he plays more instruments than he can count, and his favorite genre of music is jazz.

Carmyn is enrolled in the Running Start Program at WVC. She is a senior that has aspirations to get her transfer degree, and then continue to a four-year college. She is interested in studying music education, English, and humanities.

She attends the top choirs at Eastmont High School; both Chamber Choir and Jazz Choir. This is her sixth year in choir and she received second place in the Soprano category at Solo and Ensemble. She wants to continue to be in choir throughout her life.

A fun fact about Carmyn is that she did competitive gymnastics for nine years and now coaches competitive gymnastics at Apple Valley Gymnastics here in Washington.

Matthew is going to WVC to get his AA with plans to transfer.

He has performed in musicals in high-school and sang with the choir there.

Fun fact, he has always wanted a pet bear.

Thomas is currently attending WVC to obtain a general two year degree. He became involved with musicals at eight years old and still is today.

He was born in California and moved to Wenatchee at the age of three.

Fun fact, his favorite Pokemon, UBERON, is tattooed on his left ankle.

Gustavo Vega R plans to earn his AA Degree and Transfer to Eastern or WSU to become a music teacher. Gustavo graduated from Chelan High School and has no choir experience; however, he has tons of experience with music and behind the drum set. He began his interest in music when he was 10 years old. His father taught him how to play multiple rhythms in one specific genre (Mexican Music) and since then, Gustavo has taught himself how to play other genres. During High School, he became the lead percussionist sophomore year, which was such a big responsibility. He has earned 18 different music awards and has built quite a reputation that is hard to replace him for. Gustavo has never missed a single pep band, concert, jazz and marching band performance. He currently manages to keep in contact with former percussion classmates and mentors them. Fun Fact: Metal is his favorite genre.

Jason is going to get an AA degree and then transfer to Central Washington University for a computer science degree. He's only been in choir for a year now, beginning in spring of last year. Fun fact about Jason is, he can count in binary using his fingers up to 1023.

Sierra is going to school for child development. I'd like to help and give back to our community.

This is my first time ever being in choir so I'm excited to be in choir this year

An interesting fact is that I love to sing to my dog so that way I have somebody listening.

Zac Stephens is a former music major at WVC, and has been playing the guitar for the past 15 years. His particular areas of interest are Jazz, Blues, and Classical guitar.

In the future he hopes to start a business giving guitar lessons and performing around the state.

Zac also has a B.A. in Psychology from Western Washington University.

At the age of seven, Ben Snyder started taking vocal lessons and has enjoyed singing in numerous musical performances in the Waterville and Wenatchee Valley areas. .

Ben's plan is to obtain an AA degree from Wenatchee Valley College and transfer to a film school in California to earn a Bachelor's degree in Film Production.

Interestingly, when he was younger, Ben was diagnosed with Tourette's Syndrome, but has grown out of the majority of the symptoms.