This journey toward your education is only the first step toward a brighter future. We cannot wait to see what you accomplish next.

WELCOME

FROM DR. DIANA GARZA, WVC VICE PRESIDENT OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

Good evening graduates, family, and friends:
My name is Dr. Diana Garza, vice president of student affairs. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, administration, staff, and faculty of Wenatchee Valley College, it is my pleasure to welcome you officially to tonight's ceremony.

Tonight's ceremony recognizes Wenatchee Valley College's pride as a Hispanic Serving Institution by incorporating a culturally blended approach. For starters, I'd like to recognize tonight's Mariachi who welcomed us in. Gracias, Mariachi Imperio Real!

In addition, translations, both English and Spanish, are in the program. Translating for us tonight is a familiar face to many of you: Aracely Mendoza, Wenatchee Valley's College's own director of Concurrent Enrollment.

Providing American Sign Language interpretation is Ella Devon and Shawna Gardner.

Among you are almost 500 students who are graduating. These graduates represent over 80 communities from across Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, Oregon, Texas, and Washington. There are graduates here tonight from Brazil, Japan, Mexico, Pakistan, South Sudan, Ukraine, and Venezuela. They have studied hard and persevered while balancing work, school, and family, and will tonight receive their degrees and certificates.

LAND AND LABOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I would like to acknowledge that we are on the ancestral lands of the 12 bands of the Colville Confederated Tribes, which include the Lakes, Colville, Okanogan, Moses Columbia, Wenatchi, Entiat, Chelan, Methow, Nespelem, Sanpoil, Chief Joseph Band of Nez Perce, and Palus Indians, specifically the lands of the Wenatchi, Entiat, Chelan, and Yakama peoples on the Wenatchee and Omak campuses. We are honored to be using the land and recognize the privilege it is to do so.

We acknowledge that our nation (and our institution) have benefited from the free enslaved labor of Black people. We recognize the interconnected histories of Indigenous peoples who were forcibly removed from their land and the history of those who were forcibly brought to it. We acknowledge the immigrant labor that has contributed to this country as a critical labor force, including voluntary, involuntary, trafficked, forced, and undocumented peoples. We recognize and honor their important contributions.

FELICITACIONES

DEL DR. FAIMOUS HARRISON, PRESIDENTE DE WVC

Hoy, los celebramos a ustedes, nuestra distinguida Clase de 2025. Deben estar orgullosos de los títulos, certificados y diplomas que han obtenido, y que sepan que nosotros, el profesorado y el personal, estamos orgullosos de sus logros. Puede que hayan superado muchos obstáculos y hecho sacrificios para llegar a este día. Puede que también hayan celebrado muchas victorias. Aunque puede haber desafíos por delante, también habrá oportunidades. Aprovechen esos momentos. Esfuércense por alcanzar la excelencia. Confíen en quiénes son y en su educación. Salgan al mundo sabiendo que su educación, sus sacrificios y sus éxitos los han fortalecido para superar cualquier desafío que el futuro pueda presentarles.

Estimados Knights, en nombre del profesorado, el personal y los miembros de la Junta Directiva de Wenatchee Valley College, ¡felicidades!

UN MENSAJE

DE LA JUNTA DIRECTIVA DE WVC

La Junta Directiva existe para ayudar a guiar al colegio en el cumplimiento de su misión. La importancia de esa misión es más evidente que nunca al momento de la graduación. Nos enorgullece ver a los estudiantes de WVC tomar control de sus vidas y su futuro al continuar tras su educación. Deseamos dar nuestras más sinceras felicitaciones a la Clase de 2025. Este viaje hacia su educación es sólo el primer paso hacia un futuro más brillante. Estamos ansiosos por ver lo que lograrán a continuación.

BIENVENIDA

DE LA DRA. DIANA GARZA, VICEPRESIDENTA DE ASUNTOS ESTUDIANTILES DE WVC

Buenas noches, graduados, familias y amigos: Mi nombre es Dra. Diana Garza y soy Vicepresidenta de Asuntos Estudiantiles. En nombre de la Junta Directiva, los administradores y el profesorado de Wenatchee Valley College, es mi placer darles la bienvenida a la ceremonia de esta noche.

La ceremonia de esta noche reconoce, a través de nuestro enfoque culturalmente mixto, el orgullo de Wenatchee Valley College de ser una institución de servicio a los hispanos (HSI, por sus siglas en inglés). Para comenzar, me gustaría reconocer al grupo de mariachi que nos dio una acogida calurosa. ¡Gracias, Mariachi Imperio Real!

De igual modo, las traducciones, tanto el inglés como el español, pueden encontrarse en el programa.

Como intérprete esta noche, tenemos a alguien que muchos reconocerán: Aracely Mendoza, Directora de Concurrent Enrollment (matriculación concurrente).

La ceremonia también será interpretada al lenguaje de señas americano por Ella Devon y Shawna Gardner.

Sentados aquí con nosotros esta noche están casi 500 estudiantes que se están graduando. Estos graduados provienen de más de 80 comunidades, incluyendo a Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, Oregon, Texas y Washington. Están aquí graduados de Brasil, Japón, México, Pakistán, Sudán del Sur, Ucrania y Venezuela. Han hecho un esfuerzo por estudiar y perseverar al mismo tiempo que equilibraron el trabajo y la familia, y esta noche obtendrán sus títulos y certificados.

RECONOCIMIENTO DE TIERRAS Y CONTRIBUCIONES LABORALES

Me gustaría reconocer que estamos en las tierras ancestrales de las 12 bandas de Tribus Confederadas de Colville que incluyen a Lagos, Colville, Okanogan, Moses Columbia, Wenatchi, Entiat, Chelan, Methow, Nespelem, Sanpoil, Chief Joseph Band de Nez Perce y e indios Palus, específicamente las tierras de la gente de los Wenatchi, Entiat, Chelan y Yakama en los campus de Wenatchee y Omak. Estamos honrados de usar la tierra y reconocer el privilegio que es hacerlo.

Reconocemos que nuestra nación (y nuestra institución) se han beneficiado del trabajo esclavizado por personas de descendencia africana o raza negra. Reconocemos las historias interconectadas de pueblos indígenas que fueron sacados a la fuerza de su tierra y la historia de aquellos que fueron traídos a la fuerza. Reconocemos la mano de obra inmigrante que ha contribuido a este país como una fuerza laboral crítica, incluyendo voluntarios, involuntarios, traficados, forzados e indocumentados. Reconocemos y honramos sus importantes contribuciones.

COMMENCEMENT SPEECH

BY BERTHA SANCHEZ, WVC COUNSELOR

Good evening, esteemed colleagues, families, friends, and most importantly, the graduating class of 2025,

Es un honor y un privilegio estar hoy ante ustedes para celebrar los increíbles logros de nuestros estudiantes. La graduación es una ocasión maravillosa, no solo para los estudiantes, sino para todos los que hemos contribuido a guiarlos y apoyarlos a lo largo de su trayectoria.

It is both an honor and a privilege to stand before you today as we celebrate the incredible achievements of the students before us. Graduation is a momentous occasion—not just for the students, but for all of us who’ve had a role in guiding and supporting them along the way.

At Wenatchee Valley College, every student has a story. Cada estudiante tiene una historia! Some of you came straight from high school, filled with questions and dreams. Others returned to the classroom after years away, driven by purpose, by family, or by a personal promise. You balanced work, parenting, caregiving, and sometimes all three. You studied on breaks, commuted long distances, stayed up late, and got up early. And you didn’t quit — even when life made it hard to keep going.

I want you to really take that in. You didn’t just complete assignments or check off degree requirements. You adapted. You stretched. You sacrificed. You kept showing up — for your education, for your future, for yourself. That takes something deep. That takes heart.

Hoy es un testimonio de arduo trabajo, fortaleza y dedicación. Tras meses de madrugadas, traspasadas, ensayos, exámenes y quizás algunas crisis existenciales, lo lograron. Están aquí y han emergido más fuertes, más sabios y preparados para el mundo. He tenido el privilegio de sentarme con muchos de ustedes —en oficinas, en videollamadas, en rincones tranquilos del campus— escuchando sus preocupaciones, celebrando sus triunfos y recordándoles su fuerza cuando la olvidaban. Y lo que espero que hayan aprendido es esto: el éxito no siempre parece una línea recta. A veces parece desvíos, pausas, reinicios, pero ustedes siguen adelante.

Today is a testament to your hard work, strength, and dedication. After months of early mornings, late nights, essays, exams, and maybe a few existential crises, you made it. You are here, and you’ve emerged stronger, wiser, and ready for the world. I’ve had the privilege of sitting with many of you — in offices, on Zoom calls, in quiet corners of campus — listening to your worries, celebrating your wins, and reminding you of your strength when you forgot it. And what I hope you’ve learned is this: success doesn’t always look like a straight line. Sometimes it looks like detours, pauses, restarts — but you keep going.

Remember that you aren’t just earning a degree. You are claiming a future. You have changed a narrative — maybe for yourself, maybe for your family, maybe for an entire generation.

Whether you’re transferring to a university, entering a career, or still figuring it out — know that you have what it takes. You are capable. You are worthy. And you are ready.

But while today marks an end, it also marks a beginning. The world beyond these walls is vast and sometimes uncertain, but I have no doubt that you are prepared. You’ve been equipped with the knowledge, the skills, and the critical thinking abilities needed to face whatever challenges come your way. More importantly, you’ve developed the confidence to trust yourselves, to make your own paths, and to contribute meaningfully to the world around you.

A las familias y seres queridos aquí presentes: gracias. Han sido el apoyo incondicional de nuestros graduados. Su amor, aliento y sacrificios han ayudado a formar a las personas que celebramos hoy. Este día es tan suyo como de ellos. To the families and loved ones here today: thank you. You’ve been the support system behind our graduates. Your love, encouragement, and sacrifices have helped shape the individuals we celebrate today. This day is as much yours as it is theirs.

And to the graduates: Remember, success is not just about what you achieve—it’s about how you continue to grow, how you face challenges with integrity and compassion, and how you use your knowledge and experience to improve the world. This degree is just a tool; it’s what you do with it that will define the impact you have.

Congratulations, Class of 2025. The world is waiting for you, and I am excited to see the amazing things you will accomplish. Felicidades, sigan adelante con orgullo, gratitud y valentía. Gracias.

DISCURSO DE GRADUACIÓN

DE BERTHA SANCHEZ, CONSEJERA DE WVC

Buenas tardes, estimados colegas, familias, amigos, y más importante aún, la Clase de 2025:

Es un honor y un privilegio estar hoy ante ustedes para celebrar los increíbles logros de nuestros estudiantes. La graduación es una ocasión maravillosa—no solo para los estudiantes, sino para todos los que hemos contribuido a guiarlos y apoyarlos a lo largo de su trayectoria.

En Wenatchee Valley College, cada estudiante tiene una historia. Algunos de ustedes llegaron directamente de la preparatoria, llenos de preguntas y sueños. Otros regresaron a la escuela después de muchos años, impulsados por un propósito, la familia o por una promesa personal. Equilibraron el trabajo, la crianza de los hijos, el cuidado de personas mayores, y a veces las tres cosas al mismo tiempo. Aprovecharon las pausas del trabajo para estudiar, viajaron largas distancias, se desvelaron y madrugaron. No se dieron por vencidos — aun cuando la vida les presentó obstáculos para seguir.

Quiero que de verdad sientan esto. No solamente completaron tareas y cumplieron los requisitos para obtener un título. Se adaptaron. Lucharon. Sacrificaron. Siguieron adelante — por su educación, por su futuro, por ustedes mismos. Eso exige algo profundo de su ser. Eso requiere corazón.

El día de hoy es testimonio de su arduo trabajo, fortaleza y dedicación. Tras meses de madrugadas, traspasadas, ensayos, exámenes y quizás algunas crisis existenciales, lo lograron. Están aquí y han emergido más fuertes, más sabios y preparados para el mundo. He tenido el privilegio de sentarme con muchos de ustedes —en oficinas, en videollamadas, en rincones tranquilos del campus— escuchando sus preocupaciones, celebrando sus triunfos y recordándoles su fuerza cuando la olvidaban. Y lo que espero que hayan aprendido es esto: el éxito no siempre parece una línea recta. A veces parece desvíos, pausas, reinicios, pero ustedes siguen adelante.

Recuerden que no solamente están obteniendo un título. Están apropiándose de su futuro. Cada uno de ustedes ha cambiado la narrativa – quizás para ti mismo, quizás para tu familia, quizás para una generación entera.

Ya sea que vayan a transferirse a la universidad, comenzar una carrera profesional o aún estén descubriendo su camino – que sepan que tienen lo que se necesita. Son capaces. Son valiosos. Y están listos.

Si bien hoy marca un final, también marca un comienzo. El mundo que los espera más allá de estas paredes es amplio y a veces incierto, pero no me cabe duda de que están preparados. Han adquirido los conocimientos, las destrezas y las habilidades de pensamiento crítico para enfrentar cualquier reto que se presente. Más importante aún, han desarrollado la confianza de poder confiar en sí mismos, forjar sus propios caminos y contribuir al mundo que los rodea de una manera impactante.

A las familias y los seres queridos aquí presentes: gracias. Han sido el apoyo incondicional de nuestros graduados. Su amor, aliento y sacrificios han ayudado a formar a las personas que celebramos hoy. Este día es tan suyo como de ellos.

Y a los graduados: Recuerden, el éxito no se trata solo de lo que logran ustedes—se trata de cómo siguen creciendo, cómo se enfrentan a los desafíos con integridad y compasión, y cómo utilizan su conocimiento y experiencia para mejorar el mundo. Este título es tan solo una herramienta; lo que hagan con él será lo que define el impacto que tienen.

¡Felicitaciones, Clase de 2025! El mundo los espera, y estoy emocionada de ver las cosas increíbles que van a lograr. ¡Felicidades, sigan adelante con orgullo, gratitud y valentía! Gracias.

CLASS RESPONSE

BY DANIA CUEVAS SANDOVAL, ASWVC SENATE PRESIDENT

Good evening,

To the esteemed staff, faculty, Board of Trustees, family, friends, and loved ones who could not be with us today, my name is Dania Giselle Cuevas Sandoval, and I am truly honored to serve as the president of the Associated Students of Wenatchee Valley College this year.

Our journey has not been without its challenges. Like many of you, I started here as a junior in high school doing the Running Start program, unsure of what my future held. By my senior year, I had earned my Associate of Arts and Science degree and served as vice president of the Associated Students. Now, I'm here once again, finishing another year to complete my prerequisites and earn my transfer Associate of Science.

When I first started, I thought I would pursue business. But over time, I discovered a passion for the medical field. Thanks to the experiences and support at WVC, I now plan to transfer to a four-year university to major in biology and become a pediatric allergist.

This journey hasn't been easy. We've faced long nights filled with studying, the pressure of midterms and finals, moments of doubt, and even burnout. There were days we questioned if we were good enough or if we could keep going. Pero aquí estamos [But here we are]—because with the support of those around us and the belief that it would all be worth it, we kept moving forward.

Growing up, my parents always said, “Échale ganas.” In English, it means something like—give it your best, put your heart into it, and never stop trying, no matter how hard things get. Mis padres siempre me decían esas palabras, y se quedaron conmigo. [My parents always said these words to me and they stayed with me]. In the hardest moments, when I felt like giving up, I would remember that. Y gracias a eso, estoy aquí hoy. [And thanks to that, I am here today.]

To my fellow students—wherever life takes you after today, carry that same spirit with you. Don't be afraid to work hard, to dream big, and to rise when challenges come your way. Hemos pasado por mucho, but we've proven that with esfuerzo, apoyo y corazón, podemos lograr grandes cosas [We have been through a lot, but we've proven that with effort, support and heart, we can achieve great things].

As we step into the next chapter, remember: the road won't always be easy, and there will be moments of doubt. But don't let that stop you. You are stronger than you know. Ya hemos llegado muy lejos y esto apenas es el comienzo. [We have already made it so far and this is barely the beginning].

Before closing, I want to start by thanking my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for giving me the strength to reach this moment. To my family—thank you for your love, sacrifices, and endless encouragement. To my professors, staff, tutors, mentors, and advisors—thank you for your guidance, your support, and for believing in me. And finally, to my incredible student senate team—thank you for your hard work, commitment, and for the unforgettable memories we've created together. A special thank you as well to our advisor, Rob, for stepping in and guiding us with patience and encouragement every step of the way. We couldn't have done it without you.

And to everyone who stood by us—our families, professors, mentors, and friends—gracias por apoyarnos cuando más lo necesitábamos [thank you for supporting us when we most needed it].

Congratulations, Class of 2025. This is just the beginning. So keep moving forward without fear. Build the future you once only dreamed of. Y nunca olviden de dónde vienen y de echarle ganas. [And never forget where you come from and to give it your all].

RESPUESTA DE LA CLASE

DE DANIA CUEVAS SANDOVAL, PRESIDENTA DEL SENADO DE ASWVC

Buenas tardes,

Para el estimado personal, el profesorado, los miembros de la Junta Directiva, las familias, los amigos y los seres queridos que no pudieron estar con nosotros hoy, mi nombre es Dania Giselle Cuevas Sandoval, y me siento verdaderamente honrada de servir como presidenta de los Associated Students of Wenatchee Valley College (Estudiantes Asociados de Wenatchee Valley College) este año.

No han faltado desafíos en nuestro camino. Como muchos de ustedes, empecé aquí como estudiante de tercer año en la preparatoria haciendo el programa Running Start, sin estar segura de lo que estaba por venir. Para mi último año, había obtenido mi Título de Asociado en Artes y Ciencias y me desempeñé como vicepresidenta de los Associated Students. Ahora, estoy aquí una vez más, terminando un año más para completar mis cursos requeridos y obtener mi Título de Asociado en Ciencias para transferirme.

Cuando empecé, pensé en dedicarme a los negocios. Pero con el tiempo, descubrí una pasión por el campo de la medicina. Gracias a las experiencias y el apoyo en WVC, ahora planeo transferirme a una universidad de cuatro años para especializarme en biología y convertirme en alergóloga pediátrica.

Este camino no ha sido fácil. Hemos pasado largas noches estudiando, y nos hemos enfrentado a la presión de los exámenes parciales y finales, momentos de duda e incluso agotamiento. Hubo días en que nos preguntamos si éramos lo suficientemente buenos o si podíamos seguir adelante. Pero aquí estamos, porque con el apoyo de quienes nos rodean y la creencia de que todo valdría la pena, seguimos avanzando.

Al crecer, mis padres siempre decían: “Échale ganas.” En inglés, significa algo así como dar lo mejor de ti, poner tu corazón en ello y nunca dejar de intentarlo, sin importar lo difícil que se pongan las cosas. Mis padres siempre me decían esas palabras, y se quedaron conmigo. En los momentos más difíciles, cuando tenía ganas de rendirme, las recordaba. Y gracias a eso, estoy aquí hoy.

A mis compañeros: donde sea que la vida los lleve después de hoy, lleven ese mismo espíritu con ustedes. No tengan miedo de esforzarse, de soñar en grande y de levantarse cuando los desafíos se les presenten. Hemos pasado por mucho, pero hemos demostrado que, con esfuerzo, apoyo y corazón, podemos lograr grandes cosas.

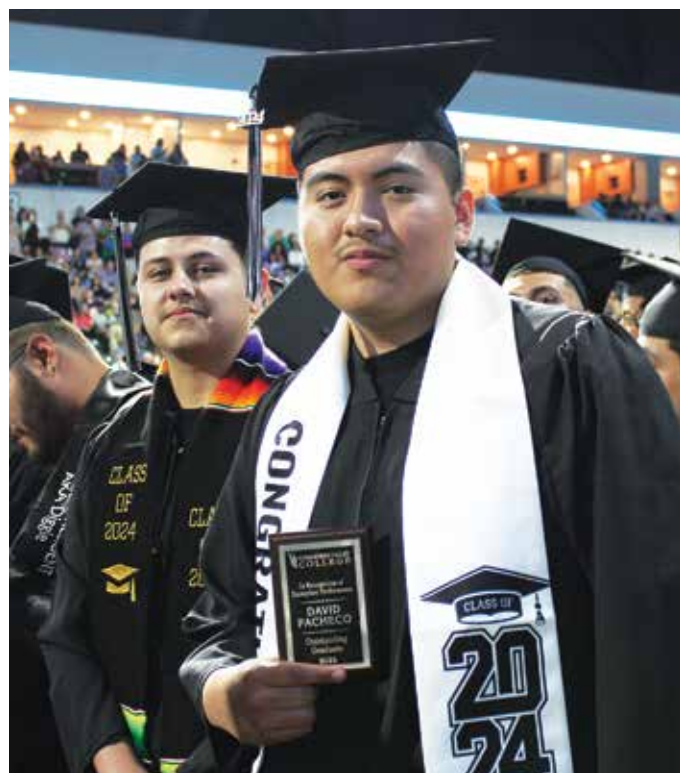

A medida que avanzamos en el próximo capítulo, recuerden: el camino no siempre será fácil y habrá momentos de duda.

No permitan que eso los detenga. Son más fuertes de lo que piensan. Ya hemos llegado muy lejos y esto apenas es el comienzo.

Antes de terminar, quiero agradecer a mi Señor y Salvador, Jesucristo, por darme la fuerza para llegar a este momento. A mi familia—gracias por su amor, sacrificios y aliento sin fin. A mis profesores, personal, tutores, mentores y asesores, gracias por su orientación, su apoyo y por creer en mí. Y finalmente, a mi increíble equipo de estudiantes del senado, gracias por su arduo trabajo, compromiso y por los recuerdos inolvidables que hemos creado juntos. Un agradecimiento especial también a nuestro asesor, Rob, por intervenir y guiarnos con paciencia y aliento en cada paso del camino. No habríamos podido lograrlo sin ti.

Y a todos los que nos acompañaron—nuestras familias, profesores, mentores y amigos, gracias por apoyarnos cuando más lo necesitábamos.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The caps and gowns worn today by the Wenatchee Valley College administration, faculty, and students are the official and traditional regalia designed for graduation. A student wears a long, full-flowing robe and a tight-fitting skull cap attached to a stiff piece called a mortarboard, with a tassel dangling from a button placed in the center of the mortarboard. Some of the participants may wear a cape or hood lined with colored silk and trimmed with velvet. Most collegiate caps, gowns and hoods are black. The cut of the robe and its sleeves, as well as its trimming, indicate various academic degrees. In 1884, the Intercollegiate Commission set the standards of academic regalia in the United States.

All-Washington
